

ASEA For Mindset Development

ASEA is an amazing biochemical substance that aids the body in fostering its health, renewal, revival, stamina and hope for a longer time in life to realize something more than one thought possible about oneself. ASEA is a formation of salt and water manufactured in a laboratory that simulates a naturally recurring compound in some mineral springs produce that are salty in stature. Humans have renewed and revived in soaking and drinking from mineral springs throughout the eons. Drinking mineral water with ASEA components is less possible today as it requires major light gates to be spawned naturally. ASEA is a substance now manufactured in a laboratory for mass consumption of what is known as Redox Molecules.

Redox Molecules

Redox Molecules is a salt and water bond that is naturally produced in all children. Most produce less and less Redox Molecules after the age of twelve. Most begin to age thereafter as a result. In the cycle of Atlantis (about 10,000-40,000 years ago) and due to light motions upon Earth that mimic the laboratory today, Redox Molecules prevailed in most waterways and renewed and revived the planet and humanity recurrently. Redox fosters the health of the cells in many ways. Biochemists today are noting that Redox fosters the proper current in the skin membrane of each cell. The proper current is required for cells to communicate to one another or the biology. Cells often age as they cannot relay what they require to repair themselves. As the cell wall repairs its capacity to communicate, nutrients can be delivered to revive each cell.

The proper charge is also required in any cell in order to detoxify what ails it. In today's world of electronic gadgetry, most humans are exposed to a low-grade radiation that alters the charge of the cells. Cells gather toxins and cannot release them complicating the journey of revival for those aspiring to motion light. If the biology is ill, light motion that is unevenly motioned will cause the body to move towards disease and death rather than renewing through time. ASEA offers the possibility to revive more of the cells by discharging toxins so that light motions evenly renewing the body instead of aging it as light wave synergy take flight in the life.

The Gifts of Consuming ASEA

1. Most humans suffer from heavy metal and plastic or petrochemical exposure through time. ASEA allows a more rapid capacity to detoxify such substances to allow light motion of field to renew and revive each self rather than dying due to overheating.

2. Redox Molecules in the blood act as a carrier of light. Many suffer from blood that is toxic due to poor dietary habitat through time. Redox allows light to motion better in the blood so that the blood itself can remain healthy. It was a known fact in Atlantis that all disease began in the blood. Atlantean scientists learned to measure the blood to treat what was ailing their populations. Redox Molecules was one compound generally prescribed as it fostered light motions that were even allowing the blood to detoxify of whatever else may have ailed it.
3. The nervous system and cortex of the brain needs to grow and develop in order to mindset develop. New synapses and layers of cortex must be spawned in order to foster another level of thought stream that is divine amongst those destined to self-realize in this cycle. ASEA spawns the capacity for the nervous system and cortex to more rapidly regrow into a new light wave DNA blueprint.
4. Redox Molecules added to the diet is a stamina boost all of its own. Many professional athletes have annotated a big shift in their track records as a result of consuming ASEA. The overall stamina boost is useful to the life of all aspirants to become more equipped to actualize their divine dreams through time.
5. ASEA renews the entire body through time if ingested for a 12 to 15 months. For some who are older adepts, consuming ASEA may be required for up to 24 months for a complete biological revival into light wave DNA. ASEA fostering transfusion through which light wave DNA may be spawned in the life. Light wave DNA and mindset development leads to the capacity to self-realize into divine concepts of life.

Stability of Mind and Exuberant Joy

Many young people who are mindset developing suffer from recurrent depression. Some may motion towards suicidal tendencies. ASEA may allow those of this nature to find their stability of mind. Many adults struggle to mindset develop fully to the level they are attempting to master and may befall a state of depression or anxiety if not other physical ailments as well. ASEA offers new hope for the possibility of each human attempting mindset development to foster themselves into the full capacity to interpret divine air stream and motion to new heights of light wave synergy in health.

For the older generations attempting to mindset develop, ASEA offers the hope of fostering mature self-realization adepts that can lead and inspire others. For the youth, ASEA allows for the possibility of emerging out of the depression and into a new life of exuberant joy of being alive that mindset development is destined to cause.

There are many miracle stories amongst those who have used ASEA personally. The ASEA product has been available for about 10 years in a multi-marketing system that allows others to profit and make a living off the sales while witnessing others rise out of many emotional and physiological ailments due to the capacity of the cellular structure and nerves to revive and renew. ASEA is not really a supplement but a naturally occurring substance the body may not manufacture enough of through time.

We know that ASEA is expensive and not easily available upon all continents at this time. The company is expanding ahead. We invite you to explore more about ASEA if you are interested through the following links:
